

A collage of images. On the left, four men in traditional Saudi attire are standing in a room. In the center, a young girl with a ponytail, wearing a pink jacket, is looking at a play area. To the right, there are three identical logos for 'Marsh Children with Disability Association' featuring a stylized figure and Arabic text.

A photograph showing a group of people in traditional Saudi attire (ghutras and agals) standing in front of a white wall. A blue banner is visible behind them with Arabic text: 'الجناح الجنوبي' (South Hall) and 'أدلة وسما' (Guides and Maps). The banner also features the logo of the National Museum of Saudi Arabia.

A close-up photograph of a dark blue velvet jacket. The jacket features subtle vertical stitching or piping in a bright orange color along the seams of the sleeves and body. The fabric has a rich, velvety texture and a slight sheen. The lighting highlights the soft folds and the contrast between the dark fabric and the vibrant piping.
